Discussion
Ethical Activities	August – Use ecological chemical that won't pollute the water table. September – Use a pressure cook and save energy	An e-mail was sent to Brenda Gunn and the ethical activities for the next quarter will be published in Talkabout. Cathie continues to put up notices in the Church each month. October: Investigate energy saving devices for the home. (B&Q Eco Shop) November: Invest in energy saving light bulbs. December: Send a Christmas Card to a prisoner of conscience. Liam read from the Southwark J & P newsletter a list of 'Lifestyle Choices' and drew attention to a number of forthcoming activities. He will put the Newsletter on our board. It can be read at http://www.southwarkjandp.co.uk/newsletters_files/Autumn%202010.pdf Cathie mentioned Merton Peace Week starting on 19th September, full details at http://www.merton.gov.uk/leisure/events/weekofpeace.htm Anyone coming across the leaflet should
	Prisoner of Conscience Christmas cards	put it on our board. Barbara to ask Canon Acton if we can repeat sending cards to POCs in mid November, 15 & 22 November were suggested. Cathie will buy cards from HCPT as last year Liam to prepare a list of prisoners and confirm who has been released.
Barn Dance event	Publicity	The date has been agreed with Mary Farrell and the cost will be between £100 to £150. We will use the treasury money to pay for it and the money which we make on the evening will go to CCFON. Liam to check with John about balance in the account. The event was publicised in Talkabout and in the newsletter. It should go in again next weekend. Mike will add 'Please bring a dish of finger food' and make small (A6) copies of the poster to be distributed this weekend: 8 am Barbara & Liam 9.30 Christine & Cathie 11 am Christine & Cathie 6.30 Barbara
